Step Back in Time at the Petaluma Adobe State Historic Park on Saturday, May 8

On Saturday, May 8, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., visitors will have a chance to step back in time during Petaluma Adobe State Historic Park's Living History Day. Admission is $4 for adults 17 and older and children 16 and under are free. The event is presented by California State Parks and the Sonoma State Historic Park Association. The event will be held rain or shine.

The park is located at 3325 Adobe Road, Petaluma, CA 94954. (Directions: Follow State Historic Park signs from Highways 101 and 116 to Casa Grande Road and Adobe Road. The park is located on Adobe Road between Casa Grande Road and Frates Road. The park information phone number is (707) 762-4871.

Petaluma Adobe Living History Day means family fun as 1840-era Mexican California comes to life. Visitors will have a chance to meet the vaqueros, traders, cooks, craftspersons, soldiers, and others who lived in Old California. Living history volunteers dressed in beautiful authentic clothing demonstrate old crafts and present historical skits. Visitors can try basket weaving and candle making – and visitors are advised to bring a picnic lunch.
